

Central Methodist Church Brighouse

Library Catalogue July 2017

Entries in Red - New October 2016 or later

The Library housed at Central Methodist Church in Brighouse is available to all who might find its content useful.

At present work is being done on the catalogue and some new material is being added whilst, at the same time, some less useful material is being removed. So this Catalogue will change over time to reflect this. The position of the books on the shelves will also change but it is hoped that shelf labelling will make this clear.

Material added recently is indicated by red type, as mentioned above.

The library is accessible on Friday and Saturday mornings between 10.00 and 12 noon or at other times by appointment. Please ring Graham Smith on 01484 718807 for more details.

Borrowers are asked to record which books they have taken and when. Books should be returned as soon as possible but at least within a month.

The George William Armitage Library

In order to ensure that these records remain accurate it would be appreciated if anyone wishing to borrow any of the books in the library entered details in the book provided for this purpose.

On returning the book/s please try to remember to enter it/them back into the library and replace in their original position on the shelves.
